Problem
The stream stops flowing and they soon run out of water, this means the buksa will die and then they will have no food.

They knew the problem was at the top of the mountain so they would have to climb it but people believe there’s a dragon at the top.

Rowan of Rin is set in and place called Rin. Most of the people there are warriors all except for a boy called Rowan. Rowan looks after the buksa. Star is Rowan’s favourite buksa.

Before they went on their trip they went to Sheba to get information about the quickest way to the top.

When they climb a bit of the mountain they come across spiders, huge spiders that blocked the path. But later Ellis runs away because of his fear of spiders. Then there were only six left.

At the end of the quest they face the dragon.
